SYRACUSE (N. Y.), Oct. 16.—[By the

the most disastrous fire that has visited

Syracuse for many years was discovered in the Leland Hotel at 12:30 o'clock this morning. It is now 2 o'clock and the fire is still burning fiercely, although the entire fire

THE FAIR.

Display at the Chamber of Commerce Rooms.

BIG CROWD IN ATTENDANCE.

The Races at Agricultural Park—Ladies' Tournament and Balloon Ascent—The Stock Parade Today.

It is the middle of October, and yet the bright and blue and sunny skies are being about the semi-tropical land. There is no hint of frost or decay. Nature looks young and fair, and greets us with the sweet breath of opening blossom and ripening fruit.

But the careless wanderer through this section does not dream of the abounding fruitfulness that is, even now in these early October days, sending in its ripening harvest, nor of the abundance that has been garnered for use.

Come with me, gentle readers, and we will visit the Agricultural Fair which is now open at the Chamber of Commerce. It is a little world in miniature and a most sympathetic epitome of the productions of this section.

It is an attractive picture that greets us as we ascend the broad stairway and enter the hall. The great skylight in the center is adorned with branches of fan palm, and slender boughs of cypress. Beneath them are hung gracefully hanging festoons of evergreen, extending across the room from gallery to gallery. Great branching banana plants, beneath which hang large clusters of ripening fruit, spread their drooping boughs above the long tables. Pampas plumes and long ribbons of evergreen depend from the sides of the galleries. Numerous orange trees line the aisles along the fruit-laden tables. Four long tables extend the length of the hall, two on either side, covered with an infinite variety of fruits and vegetables. The walls are stationary tables, with sloping tiers of shelves above them, all fruit-laden and rich in their abundant and varied offerings.

There are pyramids of apples, and of wine and honey; miniature hillocks of luscious grapes, a cypress-wreathed temple filled with canned fruits, and the door a sparkling fountain of water, with a plant and with lilies in its pool. Beyond the yellow pumpkins gleam as if they had caught the golden rays of the sun, and rest not day nor night in their lusty growth. Two hundred and twenty-five pounds does the largest marked one weigh, while near it do the squashes lift their green sides, hardly less in size and plumpness. The giant stalks of corn lift their heads to the ceiling, and the tall bacco plants rise above the open doorways. It is not the season of citrus fruits, and the stranger indulging in the fallacy that Southern California is a land of perpetual summer is almost wholly embraced within the limits of citrus growth, would be taken wholly by surprise, and heavily presented. It is a picture representing patient industry and large returns; wide experiments and successful results; an epitome of the land of the future, and it is always full to overflowing and all growth is on a mammoth scale.

It is an exhibit, this exhibit, remarked a lady, who treaded her way up the long aisles between the fruit-laden tables. It is late in the season for deciduous fruits, and the squashes, yet I could hardly conceive of a display more complete than this. Did you ever see such apples, such magnificent pears, such grapes, peaches, and oranges, such lemons, limes, squashes, etc., from the frostless belt of the Chihuahuas foot-hill, and all grown without irrigation. And in addition there are the quinces from the French prunes and quavas, the tempting-looking "New Pacific figs," as white as the best of the Syrian figs, and for market. There are some, in their fresh state, which look exceedingly tempting.

Then among the exhibits from this section are piles of plump red tomatoes, and mammoth sugar-beets, and a fine specimen of broom corn.

The display of dried and canned fruits, put up by Mr. Baker of Pasadena attracts great attention. There are canned peaches, plums, olives, pears, apricots, apples, limes, grapes, prunes, figs, jellies of all kinds, and dried fruits of all varieties. By a process of his own the ripest, or otherwise waste fruit, are dried and pressed into thin sheets hardly thicker than paper, so that you can purchase your dried fruits by the square foot, and the fruit is as good as the fresh fruit, and it is sure to be much sought after.

"See those different-colored silk handkerchiefs in those tall glass cases," exclaimed one individual to another—"I wonder what they are on exhibition for?" An inspection of those tall glass cases disclosed the fact that they were not kerchiefs at all, but sheets of fruit dried after the Baker process.

Some marvelous fine onions are exhibited, with Hubbard squashes, almonds, cucumbers, alfalfa, white corn, pears weighing a pound or more, fine soft-shell walnuts and almonds, and a host of other things. The display of cheeses is produced from those manufactured in our outlying towns.

The display of dried fruits is very tempting, and the demand for these in our eastern markets will increase as they become better known.

Westminster makes a rare display of fine apples. Among these there are some eighteen or twenty varieties, numbering among them the "Golden Wonder," "Bellflower," the "Kussetta," which carry one in imagination to New England orchards; the "Nick-Jack," Smith's "Orie," a fine fruit; Golden Pippin, and the "Red Red," a single orchard were the "Telpahcan," "W. Pearmain," Spitzenberg, "King of Tompkins," "Crown," "Crisp," "Rodeo Island Greening," "Baldwin," of childhood memory, and the Stark apple. Fine Japanese plums were also exhibited from that section.

Yentura has an excellent display, and prominent among it is her honey exhibit. The strained honey is very white and clear. The honey in the glass jars is the best that the most aristocratic bee ever made.

A most unique and peculiar plant from the garden of Mr. Shepherd, the "Yentura plant," is upon this table. It is called the "Old Man." It has a thick stem or body which enlarges at the top, and from this larger portion grows a perfect resemblance of long, straight gray hair. On-lookers could scarcely believe that it was anything else. It is a curiosity.

Most of the towns of Los Angeles county are represented at the fair, and the general exhibit from all sections is better than was anticipated.

J. A. Way of Pomona has charge of the exhibit made by the National Hose Coupling Company, a company recently organized at Pomona. The exhibit embraces samples of various sizes of the national hose coupling, from three-quarter inch, used on lawn mowers, to one-half inch, used for fire departments. It is claimed for the coupler that connections are made almost instantaneously. The lawn sprinkler in use by the public. It is asserted that it takes but one-third as much pressure to run it as is required by the sprinkler generally in use by the public. It is impossible to take in the whole fair in a single sketch. The art and curio rooms are full of interest, and the departments representing our various manufactures are worthy of more extended mention.

The number of visitors through the day does not lag, yet the exhibits are deserving of close study. Let strangers visit the fair, for they can learn more of the agricultural possibilities of this section than in any other way.

Last evening the attendance at the horticultural fair in the Chamber of Commerce building on Main Street, was much better than on the opening night. Quite an interesting musical programme was carried out. A large delegation of eastern people visited the hall last night, and expressed themselves as highly pleased with the display. They were greatly surprised to find so great a variety of fruit at this season of the year.

The entry clerks had time to breathe yesterday, as but few exhibitors put in an appearance. The following entries were made:

Miss Jessie Miller, Los Angeles, moss and shell gloves, etchings, fancy tids, Kensington work, luster painting, oil painted banner and croquet work.

Mrs. J. H. Crawford, Los Angeles, Spanish embroidered silk vest.

Steckel & Lamson, photographic display.

Miss Mamie Chick, croquet work.

Mrs. J. H. Crawford, Los Angeles, oranges and lemons on orange plaques.

John S. Calkins, Pomona, twelve assorted olive trees.

August Wagner, Los Angeles, electric lamp.

C. B. Sheldon, Pomona, figs.

Mechanical Company, an assortment of vegetables and fruits upon which is attached a card, "What White Men Have Raised in Southern California to a Profit."

Alpine Plaster and Cement Company of this city, display of land plaster and cement plaster.

A. O. Blake of this city, bunch of dates.

W. A. Coolidge, harness.

Mrs. L. V. Voorhees of this city, one case of silk gloves, home manufacture.

Pomona National Hose Company, hose coupling.

Irving F. White & Son of Pomona, double copier trap.

Two photographs talk away at a great rate all day long.

The doors open every morning at 9 o'clock and close at 10 in the evening.

The crazy quilts and fancy work entered by little Miss Workman attract universal attention.

Saturday will be Children's day, and the little folks are expected in crowds from all parts of four counties.

The chickens will be out of their shells today and will be hopping about in the brooder at a lively rate.

A banana stalk twenty-nine feet high, with a bunch of bananas attached, was another attraction yesterday.

A number of amateur photographers took views of the exhibits yesterday, intending to send them to their friends.

The ladies in the ice cream department were kept busy yesterday. They have had coffee and sandwiches for a noon lunch.

Soda water was in demand yesterday, and the members of the Ladies' Annex in the ice cream department were kept busy waiting on the ladies.

In the list of exhibitors yesterday a display of engravings on metal was credited to Mrs. M. M. Morrison.

Over two thousand people visited the horticultural exhibit yesterday, and it is expected that the attendance will increase today and tomorrow.

Ventura's honey display has captured the attention of everybody. A hive of live bees today and will be hopping about in the brooder at a lively rate.

The man-eating tiger, belonging to Capt. Anderson, is one of the greatest attractions in the gallery. It is constantly surrounded by a crowd of admiring people.

Dr. Barber of Antelope Valley is proud of the fact that his wheat took the first prize. He says that part of the country can't produce wheat in the way of grain, cotton and fruit.

It seems to be quite the fashion for fashionable young ladies and gentlemen to visit the fair yesterday. They have had coffee and sandwiches for a noon lunch.

Superintendent Frank Wiggins has been untiring in his efforts to make the fair a success. He has worked hard night and day, and has tried hard to please everybody.

POLICE BUSINESS.

Regular Weekly Meeting of the Commission.

THE CHINESE GAMBLERS' CASES.

Spoly Communication from Chief Glass-Weils, Guthrie & Lee Called Upon to Prove Their Charges.

The Police Commissioners met on the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon, with Commissioner Lewis in the chair and Commissioners Bryson and Dexter present.

THE CHINESE MATTER. Chief Glass presented the following communication, which was read by the clerk:

To the Honorable Board of Police Commissioners: GENTLEMEN:—In the Evening of October 10th, 1890, appeared a letter from the attorneys, Wells, Guthrie & Lee, which reflects on the police department by openly asserting that the police are running a gambling game and allow white gamblers to run unopposed. This is a serious charge, and as it is my duty to suppress gambling by my orders and as a public official, I called on Messrs. Wells, Guthrie & Lee and requested them to please give me information in writing as to the charges made by them, so I might proceed against them and suppress the same. Attorney Guthrie said he "knew nothing about the matter except he had seen in public."

He was absent at the time of the case against our officers when the letter was published. Attorney Wells said he had written a letter to the police department, but he did not inform me where I could find these games that were contrary to law, admitting that he had not seen any of the games played. I assured him that I would prosecute all unlawful gambling, but he said he did not know of any "faro" being played."

On any other game of his own knowledge, the police department would be prosecuted. The legal advice that I have on the subject is that they might be prosecuted but not convicted, as such cases have been tried time and again, and I am strange that respectable attorneys rush into print and hold the police department up to ridicule and before the public, and are being prosecuted by the police according to law. These same clients are Chinese gamblers, and only study how to keep their eyes and ears open in view of the fact that the police are running a gambling game and allow white gamblers to run unopposed. This is a serious charge, and as it is my duty to suppress gambling by my orders and as a public official, I called on Messrs. Wells, Guthrie & Lee and requested them to please give me information in writing as to the charges made by them, so I might proceed against them and suppress the same. Attorney Guthrie said he "knew nothing about the matter except he had seen in public."

I assured him that I would prosecute all unlawful gambling, but he said he did not know of any "faro" being played."

On any other game of his own knowledge, the police department would be prosecuted. The legal advice that I have on the subject is that they might be prosecuted but not convicted, as such cases have been tried time and again, and I am strange that respectable attorneys rush into print and hold the police department up to ridicule and before the public, and are being prosecuted by the police according to law. These same clients are Chinese gamblers, and only study how to keep their eyes and ears open in view of the fact that the police are running a gambling game and allow white gamblers to run unopposed. This is a serious charge, and as it is my duty to suppress gambling by my orders and as a public official, I called on Messrs. Wells, Guthrie & Lee and requested them to please give me information in writing as to the charges made by them, so I might proceed against them and suppress the same. Attorney Guthrie said he "knew nothing about the matter except he had seen in public."

He was absent at the time of the case against our officers when the letter was published. Attorney Wells said he had written a letter to the police department, but he did not inform me where I could find these games that were contrary to law, admitting that he had not seen any of the games played. ## Meeting at the Pavilion Tonight.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETINGS

Rising Demonstrations in East Los Angeles, San Fernando and Azusa—Flambeau Exhibition—Campaign Lie Nailed.

Don J. C. Campbell, of Stockton, chairman of the last Republican State Convention, and candidate for Congress—man of the hour in the Republican ticket, and Don J. V. Morehouse, of Santa Clara county, will address the Republican meeting at the Pavilion tonight. Both gentlemen are talented orators, and the Pavilion should be filled.

EAST LOS ANGELES REPUBLICANS.
The Republicans of East Los Angeles held their first meeting of the campaign at the Pavilion last night. Elser's brass band was in attendance, giving an open air concert before the meeting, which soon filled the hall with ladies and gentlemen. The meeting was called to order by A. Mundell, and S. A. Garnett as elected chairman. The following list of vice-presidents were chosen: J. D. Johnson, J. D. Brown, Charles D. Jones, J. H. Partridge, C. J. Stevens, W. A. Nelwander, Martin Wetzell, C. M. Brown, C. A. Teal, F. M. Tyler, E. B. Randolph, E. E. Johnson, L. M. Brown, W. W. Stockwell.

The following speakers were present and delivered short addresses: J. D. Johnson, J. H. Partridge, C. J. Stevens, W. A. Nelwander, Martin Wetzell, C. M. Brown, C. A. Teal, F. M. Tyler, E. B. Randolph, E. E. Johnson, L. M. Brown, W. W. Stockwell.

FLAMBEAU EXHIBITION.
The Lincoln Flambeau Club will give an exhibition flambeau drill on Boyle Heights tomorrow night at the ratification meeting to be held in the Hall. Elser's brass band and the Excelsior Glee Club will also be in attendance.

AT SAN FERNANDO.
Odds Fellows' Hall was crowded to the doors last night with enthusiastic Republicans, assembled to ratify the State and county tickets.

F. M. Wright called the meeting to order and introduced S. G. Millard of Los Angeles as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Millard, in a pleasant and forcible manner, reviewed the Republican and Democratic tickets, every reference to Pasadena's favorite son being enthusiastically received, and closed with a strong argumentative appeal for the whole county ticket. He laid particular stress on the fact that the Democratic party, in its desperation, had, for months, been endeavoring to select one or more officers on which to concentrate its efforts in the coming election, and had finally resorted to manufacturing a candidate for the whole county ticket, by the name of Aguirre and Ward, received in any index of the general feeling throughout the country, but these gentlemen will not only be elected, but will have occasion to thank the Democracy for assisting them so materially by selecting them as political targets.

Capt. F. N. Marion followed in a brief address. If F. Edward Gray falls of an election as county Assessor it will be through no fault of the intelligent voters of San Fernando and vicinity. Capt. Gray, in a clear and intelligent manner, outlined the policy which he intends to pursue if elected, and left no doubt in the minds of his audience that he was thoroughly competent to fill the position for which he has been nominated, and that their interests would be safe in his hands.

Taken as a whole, the meeting was one of the most successful ever held in this valley, and augurs well for Republican State and county tickets.

AT AZUSA.
Azusa never does anything by halves, and no better illustration of this fact could be had than the reception which was given the candidates last evening. The whole town turned out, and did honor to the standard-bearers of the Republican county ticket, and cheered to the echo every reference to Pasadena's honored son, Hon. H. H. Markham, who is destined to swamp the Pond and Buckley combination on November 4th, and who will redeem this State from "boss" rule.

The pet of the "Pumpkin-rollers," the next county clerk, Irtowbridge H. Ward, made old friends proud of their choice, and new friends by his clear, business-like presentation of his candidacy, and he leaves behind him an impression which will find expression at the polls.

Martin G. Aguirre, Sheriff (and successor to him in January next), has nothing to fear so far as Azusa is concerned, as they know him, and know his clear knowledge of the ends to which the Democratic party management will go to defeat him. Campaign lies and misrepresentations are understood by, and have no value with the "Pumpkin-rollers," as they are called by the "Brokers of Artesia." They also know that young Mr. Manday who, by their convincing arguments, strengthened the Markham ranks very materially. There were quite a number of ladies in attendance, who showed their interest in the cause by the frequent and hearty applause. Tuesday night's meeting demonstrated one thing beyond a doubt, that the Home and the beautiful city by the sea, the gallant son of Pasadena and the rest of the ticket will receive a handsome majority fully equal, if not greater, than that given to Harrison and Morton.

A LIE NAILED.
For several days past there have been rumors current upon the street to the effect that a combination had been formed between H. C. Clements, Republican candidate for Township Constable, and C. E. Roberts, Democratic candidate for the same office. This combination, so it is said, was formed for the purpose of defeating Rogers and Finneane.

This matter was brought to the attention of the Republican County Central Committee. It was thoroughly investigated, and on the best of authority, it is said, not the slightest foundation for the story was found to exist.

Both Messrs. Roberts and Clements denounce the statement as an unqualified falsehood, and they defy any one to bring evidence to prove it.

THE SUPERVISORS.
Better Accommodations Needed for Female Prisoners at the Jail.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday. On motion of Supervisor Davis, the election proclamation was ordered published fifteen days in the Daily Herald and Express.

On motion of Supervisor Hubbard, C. B. Hall was appointed Justice of the Peace and Macie Menden Constable of Antelope Valley Township.

The following communication from the Grand Jury was received:
To the Board of Supervisors:—We, your Grand Jury, after examining your County Jail, would respectfully recommend that you take steps as early as possible to arrange better accommodations for female prisoners confined in the jail, in order that proper distinction and classification may be made among the prisoners.

As it is now, women of all classes and characters are confined in the same tank or cell.

There should also be a ward provided for female prisoners who may be sick during their imprisonment.

JOHN H. PECK, foreman.
After the reading of the communication, Supervisors Davis, Perry and Rowan were appointed as a committee to investigate the matter and take steps to remedy the evils complained of.

THE COURTS.

"Rony" Crain of Lancaster on Trial.

CASE OF FALSE IMPRISONMENT

Business Transacted by the Supreme Court—Mrs. Fred Reynolds Granted a Divorce—Federal Courts—Notes.

Before Superior Judge Shaw and a jury the trial of M. H. Crain was yesterday commenced in Department Six. Mr. Crain, who is popularly known as "Rony," has the honor of being the Constable of Fairmont township.

The old, old story of a constable in the far-away districts of the country, arresting anybody and everybody he came across on charge of vagrancy, seems to be the foundation in this case of false imprisonment. The object of the Constable in cases of this kind is to obtain the mileage for conveying his prisoner to the county jail.

In March last Constable Crain arrested Carlos Herrera and Santiago Marquez, two Mexicans, on a charge of vagrancy. Both parties were brought to this city and placed in the County Jail.

The Mexican Consul here, Joaquin Diaz Prieta, interested himself in behalf of his countrymen, and the result was that this prosecution was commenced. The two Mexicans, alleged vagrants, claim that they were making their way to Antelope Valley to shear sheep.

A number of witnesses were examined yesterday afternoon for the prosecution. District Attorney J. C. Wright represents the people. The case will probably occupy all of the time of the court today, as the defense have a large number of witnesses, whose testimony, they claim, is important.

The effect of a few of these trials will be to put a stop to the abuses of the constabulary officers in the rural districts.

GRANTED A DIVORCE.

The Marital Bonds Between Marie E. Reynolds and Fred Reynolds Severed.

Superior Judge Clark in Department Two of the Superior Court yesterday issued a decree which severed the marital bonds of Marie E. Reynolds and Fred Reynolds.

The case was heard with closed doors. Only a few witnesses were called. The grounds upon which a divorce was granted were cruelty, desertion and failure to provide.

Mrs. Reynolds is really a very pretty little woman, but it was her misfortune to be linked to a man who knew neither honor nor decency.

Something over a year ago her husband, Fred Reynolds, was arrested for passing bogus checks. The matter was settled up, the amount of the checks having been made good. Reynolds then left Los Angeles, and is now in Denver. He was not here yesterday to answer to his wife's complaint.

The Cuddy Case.
The case of the United States vs. Thomas J. Cuddy, charged with perjury, was yesterday continued until the 27th inst.

No session of the Federal Courts was held out of respect to the memory of Supreme Justice Miller, deceased.

Upon the date above named the trial of Mr. Cuddy will commence, as there is no legal ground for further continuances, and Judge Jones refuses to grant a notice to quash the indictment, which charges perjury.

Dyer Released on Bond.
Frank J. Dyer, who planted a bomb in James Taylor while the latter was standing in front of the Natick House, a little over three weeks ago, is now at liberty.

Mr. Dyer yesterday furnished bond in the sum of $500, and for the first time since that fatal Monday night he spent an entire day without the jail. His bondsmen were: George J. Binder, $1000; Sherman Smith, $500; J. A. Bouby, $500; Charles A. Bell, $500; Jacob Barry, $500.

Court Notes.
Superior Judge Cheney yesterday gave naturalization papers to John Goodfellow, a native of Great Britain.

F. C. Keil will not be sentenced until Friday by Superior Judge Cheney.

Superior Judge Van Dyke yesterday issued naturalization papers to Henry Wilke, a native of Germany, and to Henry Sayre, a native of England.

In Department Five of the Superior Court naturalization papers were yesterday issued to Fred Kasmussen, a native of Denmark.

Doll, the young German who stabbed Sam Appel, a few nights ago in a row over a game of pool in Sonoratown, was yesterday examined before Justice Austin, and held to answer before the Superior Court, in $500 bonds. In default of bail he went to jail.

New Cases.
The following new suits were filed with the County Clerk yesterday:

E. M. Stone sues H. J. Stevenson to quiet title to certain lots in the town of Arcadia.

Terrence Cooney filed a petition asking for letters testamentary upon the estate of Katharine Mahon, deceased. Katharine left an estate valued at $1200 to five children.

Pliny H. Weaver petitions for letters testamentary upon the estate of W. F. Lloyd, deceased.

The match race between Sydney Ray and Almoner was won by Almoner in 2:33 and 2:34.

Margaret S. had a walk-over in the four-year-old race and was simply jogged around the track.

The Palo Alto mare Laura C. driven to beat her record of 2:24, made a mile in 2:50.

GORDAN BROS. FAILURE.

The Firm Attached at San Francisco for $5000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The tailoring establishment of Robert Gordon, doing business under the name of Gordon Bros., has been attached at the instance of Reiss Bros. & Co., wholesale clothing, who have a claim against the establishment for $5000. It is reported that Gordon's local indebtedness may exceed $20,000. He has branch houses in Sacramento, Seattle, Portland and Los Angeles, which were also attached. Gordon says his failure is due to depression in business and the effort to build up branch houses in a bad season of the year.

AN AGED WRETCH.

A CHILD CHOKED AND OUTRAGED BY AN OLD MAN.

Posses in Search of the Villain—He will Surely be Lynched if Caught by the Indignant Citizens.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SEATTLE (Wash.), Oct. 15.—At Fremont, a suburb of Seattle, this morning a 14-year-old girl by the name of Thatcher was on her way to school, and while passing through a narrow strip of woods she was seized by a gray-bearded man, probably sixty years of age. A desperate struggle ensued, in which the girl was terribly beaten and bruised. Fearing that her cries might attract attention, the villain choked the girl until she was unconscious.

After several hours she recovered consciousness and told her mother what had happened. She informed the authorities, and three deputy sheriffs and a posse of twenty-five men started after the man. Another party of fifty citizens, headed by Judge Remsburg, also organized and scoured the woods all day. If the villain is caught he will probably be lynched.

RAIDING A TAN GAME.

A Clever Capture Made by San Francisco Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] Twenty-one Chinese were captured in the G. O. Hotel last night by Sergt. Spillane, and a posse while playing tan. Officers Arlington and Ross disguised themselves as tourists and took a couple of ladies into the restaurant to take tea, and had no trouble in entering the room where the game was.

Upon proclaiming themselves as officers there was a general stampede, to stop which Officer Ross began shooting into the floor. One Chinaman gathered the "evidence" and placed it in a bag and threw it out of the window. Unfortunately for him, an officer outside caught and held it. The squad was on the alert on the outside, and every Chinaman was taken to the city prison.

GEN. HARRISON'S PARTNER.

He Says the President Will Not Seek Renomination.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] Judge John Elam of Indianapolis, law partner of President Harrison, arrived with his wife yesterday and left for the Hotel del Monte. Judge Elam does not believe that President Harrison will resume his duties as a lawyer after his term of office expires. Ruddy health, manly her make, yet this beautiful lady, once thin and pale, and suffering from a dry, hacking cough, night-sweats, and spitting of blood, seemed destined to fill a cemetery's grave. After spending hundreds of dollars on physicians, without benefit, she tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; her improvement was soon marked, and in a few months she was plump and rosy again—a perfect picture of health and strength.

This wonderful "Golden Medical Discovery," now world-famed as a remedy for consumption, which is really lung-scrofula, is not only an acknowledged remedy for this terrible fatal malady, when taken in time and given a fair trial, but also for all forms of scrofulous skin and scalp diseases, as White Swellings, Fever-sores, Hip-joint Disease, Salt-rheum, Tetters, Eczema, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas and kindred ailments. All scaly, crusty, itching, troublesome eruptions yield readily to its curative powers. It invigorates the liver, enriches the blood and promotes all the bodily functions. # UNPARALLELED SUCCESS:

— OF OUR —

GRAND OPENING —

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to all who, by their attendance, assisted in making the opening of our NEW DRY GOODS HOUSE such a GREAT and UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS, EXCEEDING, as it did, our most sanguine expectations.

This auspicious inauguration of our business is naturally most encouraging and gratifying to us, for, judging by the universal expressions of admiration and delight heard by the thousands of Ladies who attended the Opening, they thoroughly appreciated the many points of superiority of our IMMENSE STOCK over any heretofore shown in this city.

WE ARE NOW READY FOR BUSINESS, and in inviting all to call and study, at their leisure, the MATCHLESS COLLECTIONS OF RICH, RARE and BEAUTIFUL STYLES and NOVELTIES embraced in our MAGNIFICENT STOCK, we assure them it will always be our aim to make our salesrooms headquarters for all that is new and fashionable in DRY GOODS, as well as for the VERY BEST VALUES IN THE MARKET, as our system of purchasing direct from manufacturers enables us to exhibit the new styles far in advance of houses that obtain their supplies through ordinary trade channels, and also enables us to place them on sale at PRICES THAT ARE BEYOND COMPETITION.
